

Manuscripts

Phlebologie publishes original papers, reviews, educational articles, and case reports in German and English. It is essential to divide the manuscript into e.g. Summary, Introduction, Material and Methods, Results, Discussion, Conclusion, and Literature. The most important sections should be stressed by subheadings. Supplementary material for online publication, e.g., videos, is welcome.

Acceptance of Manuscripts

Only original contributions, not published elsewhere, should be submitted. Manuscripts are reviewed by two or more editors, who will decide on the acceptance. It is taken for granted that the publication has been approved by all participating authors. Moreover, in the case of the author being subject to instructions of the institute director, his/her consent must be obtained.

Address for Submissions

Submit your manuscript via E-Mail or on CD-ROM with one hard copy. Files and hard copy must be identical.

The manuscripts should be sent to Schattauer GmbH, Redaktion "Phlebologie", P.O. Box 104543, D-70040 Stuttgart, Germany, or to redaktion@phlebologieonline.de

Manuscript length

- up to 22,000 characters incl. spaces (10–12 DIN A4-pages),
- case reports up to 11,000 characters incl. spaces (6 DIN A4-pages)
- 1½ spaced, type size 12 pt, Times New Roman

Title page

A short and concise English and German title of the paper as well as a short running head, the authors' names and affiliations.

Keywords and Summary

An English summary (up to 1,200 characters incl. spaces) and an extended German summary (up to 2,400 characters incl. spaces) as well as 3–4 keywords in English and German. Divide the summary into aim, methods, results, conclusion.

Figures and Tables

- Figures are scanned and used directly for printing. After scanning no further corrections can be made.
- Figures can be sent as: slides, glossy photographs, radiographs, video printouts, photoprints and high quality b/w printouts.
- Figures can also be sent as digital documents. Graphics must be saved in .tif or .eps format with a minimum resolution of 800 dpi (line drawings) or 300 dpi (photographs), jpg-format only when scanned/saved in high quality (300/800 dpi, resp.).
- Submit only clear, glossy, reproducible figures.
- Symbols, lettering, and numbering need to be large enough to remain legible after the figure has been reduced.

- Figures and tables must have a minimum width of 57 mm, one font-size, no frames.
- On the back of each figure note the figure number, name of the author, and designation of the top.
- The cost of redrawing will be borne by the author.
- Legends: at the end of the manuscript.
- Tables: as Word-tables at the end of the manuscript, and printed on separate pages.

Figures and tables previously published must be accompanied by written permission from the publisher/copyright-holder to reproduce the figure (also author's own illustrations or tables). The correct source is given in the legend.

References

- Numbered consecutively, max. 25 (original articles) or 40 citations (reviews).
- According to Index Medicus and Vancouver Style. Name/address of the corresponding author incl. phone/fax number at the end of the reference list.

Publications in Phlebologie should appropriately be considered.

Saving the manuscript

Text, tables and figures must be saved separately. Please save figures in .eps or .tif format (see above) and do not import into Word.

- CD-ROM
- DOS format
- Please indicate on the CD-ROM the word processing software and version.

Nomenclature and Abbreviations

According to internationally approved rules. Trade names of propriety brands may be stated additionally to the generic name, incl. the name of the producer.

The author is responsible for the content of the text. Any information on dosage and method of application is supplied without liability of the Publisher and the Editor-in-Chief. The user takes full responsibility for doses and applications.

Conflict of interest

Authors should acknowledge any financial interests in companies whose products are, or have been, the subject of research reported in the manuscript. Such information will be held in confidence while the paper is under review and will not influence the editorial decision, but if the article is accepted for publication, there will be a short note for our readers.

Ethical content statement, Informed consent, Clinical trial registration

The research should adhere to the EU-Convention on the protection of animals used for scientific purpose (Revised Directive 86/609/EEC). You are required to honour the ethical principles for medical research involving human subjects as set out in the Declaration of Helsinki.

Authors should avoid the use of names of patients. Patients should not be recognisable from photographs unless their written permission has first been obtained (informed consent).

All submissions which report on new clinical trials should provide evidence that the trial is registered with one of the approved databases.

This journal follows the guidelines of the International Committee of Medical Journal Editors (www.icmje.org) and the Committee on Publication Ethics (www.publicationethics.org.uk).

Proofreading

Authors are required to return the corrected proofs before the given deadline; corrections arriving later cannot be considered. Authors may be charged for extensive alterations in the galley proofs, if the cost of the author's alterations exceed 10% of the type-setting costs.

Reprints

Reprints can be ordered by the authors in advance. An order form showing the cost of reprints is enclosed with the page proofs.
